This balance was further segmented into $374M in pension-related funds (Employee Withholdings and Pay-Go Charges), $142M in Central Government non-TSA funds (lottery-related funds and other funds held and administered by central government agencies), and $64M held TSA Sweep Accounts that collect income and completely pass through to TSA on a daily basis (includes General Collections Posts, Agency Collections Posts, and SUT). As further set forth in the Bank Account Balance Report, processes are currently in place to continue evaluating the accounts, including analyzing the cash inflows and outflows and reviewing legal restrictions relative to funds deposited into the bank accounts.*

Introduction

- Enclosed is the weekly Treasury Single Account ("TSA") cash flow report, supporting schedules and Liquidity Plan to actual variance analysis.
- TSA is the Commonwealth's main operational bank account (concentration account) in which a majority of receipts from Governmental funds are deposited and from which most expenses are disbursed.
- Beginning April 2016, TSA receipts are deposited in a commercial bank account rather than the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico ("GDB").
- Receipts in the TSA include tax collections (including revenues assigned to certain public corporations and pledged for the payment of their debt service), charges for services, intergovernmental collections (such as reimbursements from Federal assistance grants), the proceeds of short and long-term debt issuances held in custody by the Secretary of Treasury for the benefit of the Government fiduciary funds, and other receipts. Only a portion of the revenues received by the TSA is included in the annual General Fund budget presented to the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly for approval. Other revenues are separately assigned by law to certain agencies or public corporations but still flow through the TSA.
- Disbursements from the TSA include payroll and related costs, vendor and operational disbursements (including those reimbursed by Federal assistance grants and funded from Special Revenue Funds), welfare expenditures, capital outlays, debt service payments, required budgetary formulas and appropriation payments, pass-through payments of pledged revenues to certain public corporations, tax refunds, payments of current pension benefits and other disbursements.
- Federal funds related to disaster relief for hurricanes Irma and Maria are deposited in a separate bank account overseen by the Government Authorized Representative ("GAR"), and transferred to the TSA only after admissible disbursements (per approved Project Worksheets) have been made. These inflows to the TSA will be captured on the Federal Funds Receipts (Schedule C); outflows will be captured on the Vendor Payments (Schedule E).
- Data for TSA inflows/outflows is reported from various systems within the Department of Treasury of Puerto Rico ("DTPR"):
 - Cash Flow Actual Results - Source for the actual results is the TSA Cash Flow.*
 - Schedule A - Collections - Source for collections information is the DTPR collections system.*
 - Schedule B - Agency Collections - Source for the agency collections is DTPR.*
 - Schedule C - Federal Fund Receipts - Source for the federal funds receipts is DTPR.*
 - Schedule D - Net Payroll - Source for net payroll information is the DTPR Rhum Payroll system.*
 - Schedule E - Vendor Payments - The source for vendor payments is the Bank checks paid report and a report from the DTPR PRIFAS system.*
 - Schedule F - Other Legislative Appropriations - Source for the other legislative appropriations is DTPR.*
 - Schedule G - Central Government - Partial Inventory of Known Short Term Obligations - Sources are DTPR.*
- Data limitations and commentary:

The government has focused on the seven schedules above for which access to reliable, timely, and detailed data is available to support these items. The government continues to work with DTPR and other parties to access additional reliable data that would help us provide detail in the future for other line items in the Cash Flow.

FY 2018 TSA Forecast Key Assumptions

- The FY 2018 Treasury Single Account cash flow forecast Liquidity Plan was prepared at the beginning of the fiscal year based on the approved FY 2018 Budget, was projected monthly through June 2018, and is used as the benchmark against which weekly results and variances are measured. As a result of material economic and operational changes stemming from Hurricanes Irma and Maria, DTPR is in the process of developing a reforecast of TSA cash flows to year-end. Until then, the original TSA forecast will continue to serve as the measure for weekly cash flow variances.
- Forecast collections and disbursements through the General Fund and Federal Fund are consistent with the approved FY 2018 Budget, with the exception of payroll outlays which were forecast based on run-rate cash disbursement trends, and budget reserves which are non-cash and do not impact the TSA direct cash flows.
- TSA General Fund inflows are "gross" (i.e. include accrued Tax Refunds in 2018) and therefore higher than presented in the approved FY 2018 Budget, which considers General Fund revenues net of current year tax refunds. Repayment of deferred tax refunds (from CY 2016 and prior) total $292mm; reserve for current year tax refunds (excluding garnishments) total $456mm.
- Payroll outlays are based on FY 2017 run-rate disbursements, less savings measures, representing a $298mm favorable adjustment to the approved FY 2018 Budget for the full fiscal year. Payroll is presented inclusive of segregated employee contributions ($349M for the year). Payroll is disbursed through the TSA on a bi-weekly basis, approximately on the 15th and 30th of each month.
- Pensions reflect the implementation of the pay-as-you-go model in FY 2018. Retirement system inflows represent deposits from municipalities and corporations net of administrative expenses. Figures also include ERS / TRS / JRS asset sales ($390M), which occurred in July 2017.
- The Liquidity Plan assumes collections and outlays of Federal Funds are equal in FY 2018 (zero net cash impact), excluding potential timing impact.
- Clawback funds set aside prior to June 2016 (approx. $146mm held at BPPR accounts and $144mm held at GDB) are considered restricted cash and therefore excluded from the projected cash balance.
- The Liquidity Plan assumes $592mm of Reconciliation Adjustment as per the approved FY 2018 Budget and March 13 certified Fiscal Plan, which is projected separately from supplier payments and distributed evenly over 12 months. No further provision has been made for potential contingent liabilities against the government.
- The Liquidity Plan assumes that beginning November 2017, COFINA SUT collections flow to the General Fund and are available to the TSA for operational purposes, totaling approx. $316mm in incremental collections in the forecast. However, these funds flowed to the COFINA bank account (BNY Mellon), which created a permanent variance of -$316mm against the Liquidity Plan.

Executive Summary - TSA Cash Flow Actual Results for the Week Ended February 23, 2018

Key Figures as of 2/23/2018
$1.56bn	($168M)	($326M)	($238M)	($501M)
Bank Cash Position	Weekly Cash Flow	Weekly Variance ^(a)	YTD Net Cash Flow	YTD Net Cash Flow Variance ^(a)

Relevant Matter:

PREPA Loan	A Federal Court Ruling on February 19, 2018 approved a loan request in the amount of $300M to PREPA from the TSA (Central Government). Funds were transferred to PREPA from the TSA on February 23, 2018, which is reflected in this week's TSA Cash Flow Report in the line item "Reconciliation Adjustment". The $300M was repurposed from the Reconciliation Adjustment budgeted at the agency level, and use of approved budgeted amounts for the Reconciliation Adjustment from among 14 agencies provided the funding for this loan to PREPA.
Sales & Use Tax	The $753M threshold in pledged sales tax base amount for COFINA debt service was reached on 2/16 and pledged sales tax base that was previously flowing to the COFINA BNY Mellon account will flow into the General Fund going forward.

Notable variances ^(a) for the week ended February 23, 2018:

-$300M	Outflow - PREPA Loan (Reconciliation Adjustment)	(Permanent) $300M in funds relating to a loan from the Central Government were transferred to PREPA from the TSA on February 23, 2018. The transfer is considered a permanent variance to the FY2018 Liquidity Plan, as the loan is not expected to be repaid prior to the 2018 fiscal year end. The outflow is reflected in this week's TSA Cash Flow Report in the line item "Reconciliation Adjustment", as the $300M was repurposed from the Reconciliation Adjustment budgeted at the agency level.
-$95M	Inflow - General Collections	(Temporary) Mainly due to -$30M lower in Individual Income Tax collections (offsets previous week's +$38M Individual Income Tax variance), -$25M Corporate Income Tax collections, -$16M in Act 154 collections, -$12M in Petroleum & Gas Tax collections, and others. Weekly unfavorable variance was partially offset by +$17M variance in Nonresident Withholdings.
-$88M	Outflow - ASES Appropriation	(Temporary) Offsets previous YTD timing variance. Mainly due to $137M federally funded appropriation to ASES for the Medicaid Program that was executed on 2/21.
+$95M	Inflow - Federal Fund Receipts	(Temporary) Offsets previous week's timing variance. Mainly due to $142M catch up in federal funds received for the Medicaid Program.
+$22M	Sales & Use Tax	(Temporary) Higher gross SUT collections than projected for the week are due to timing and this amount will reverse next week.
+$40M	All Other	Includes Sales and Use Tax, Payroll and Related Costs, Pension Related Costs, Government Appropriations, Vendor Disbursements, and others.

Notable YTD variances ^(a) as of February 23, 2018:

-$527M	Inflow - Federal Fund Receipts	(Temporary) Based on an analysis of data through 1/31, the YTD variance has been the result of: (1) $365M lower-than-projected federal reimbursements for vendor payments (70% of total variance), an outcome of both lower-than-projected vendor disbursements in total (29% below forecast) and a change in mix between Commonwealth-funded and federally-funded vendor payments. The Department of Education, Department of Health, and the Administration for Child Care and Development constitute the majority of this variance, and the Department of Treasury is currently assessing the reasons for such variances at these agencies; (2) timing of pass-through Medicaid appropriations (10% of total variance), which will reverse in the near term; (3) timing of disbursements for the Nutritional Assistance Program (10% of total variance), which will reverse over the next two quarters; (4) lower federally-funded payroll disbursements as a percent of total payroll versus the Liquidity Plan (5% of total variance). The remaining 5% is related to the typical lag in timing between receipts and disbursements for federally-reimbursable invoices. Please note the total variance as of 2/23 is comparable to that as of 1/31, and its makeup has not significantly changed since 1/31.
-$399M	Inflow - Sales & Use Tax	(Permanent) YTD permanent negative variance is -$316M due to COFINA SUT collections flowing to the COFINA bank account. Remaining YTD variance is most likely permanent, due to lost revenues from Hurricane Maria's impact on economic activity in addition to a temporary sales tax exemption on prepared foods and items sold by small and medium merchants (exemptions expired on 1/7 and 12/31, respectively).
-$260M	Inflow - General Collections	(Partially Permanent) Principally due to the negative impacts caused by Hurricane Maria. The largest YTD collections variances are -$139M in Act 154 collections, -$137M in Individual Income tax collections, -$49M in Nonresident Withholdings, offset by +$139M in Petroleum & Gas Tax collections.
+$465M	Outflow - Vendor Disbursements	(Partially Temporary) Though vendor disbursements in December and January were in line with the Liquidity Plan ($273M per month), February monthly actuals are projected to fall below Liquidity Plan by 18%. Reforecast to year-end for vendor disbursements is currently being developed to determine how much of the remaining YTD variance is permanent vs. temporary.
+$220M	All Other	Includes Agency Collections, Retirement System Inflows, Payroll and Related Costs, Pension Related Costs, Government Appropriations, and others.

Key Cash Flow Risks to Liquidity Plan through June 30, 2018:

Corporate & Individual Income Tax	Individual Income Taxes are expected to under-perform the Liquidity Plan throughout the remainder of the fiscal year due to continued effects of Hurricane Maria on collections. Though Corporate Income Tax collections have been fairly resistant to the negative effects of Hurricane Maria to date (2% YTD variance(a)), some deterioration in Corporate Income Tax collections relative to the Liquidity Plan is expected due to the lagged impact of Hurricane Maria on this revenue stream. Due to the timing of Corporate Income Tax collections, a large portion of this effect is projected to be realized in April, 2018.
Nonresident Withholdings	Because Nonresident Withholdings are concentrated amongst several large tax payers, there is risk that the -$49M YTD variance grows larger or does not reverse throughout the remainder of FY2018. Though the largest tax payers have communicated they will make their scheduled payments this fiscal year, if one or more tax payers do not remit payment before year end it could result in a collections shortfall against the Liquidity Plan.
Nonbudgeted Spend	Disaster relief related spend (which may be reimbursed) may impact working capital due to the timing of the spend / reimbursement cycle and the lag may create temporary cash variances in the TSA. YTD variance between disaster related spend ($21M) and federal reimbursement ($15M) to the TSA is -$6M. From a budgetary perspective, disaster related spend and other nonbudgeted spend may be reapportioned from noncash budgetary reserves.
PREPA/PRASA	A Federal Court Ruling on February 19, 2018 approved a loan request in the amount of $300M to PREPA from the TSA and this amount was disbursed to PREPA on February 23, 2018. DTPR may be required to provide additional funding later this fiscal year out of the TSA to continue to support PREPA liquidity needs. PRASA might also potentially require funds to be transferred from the TSA to fund their ongoing liquidity needs.
Title III Spend & Municipal Recovery Fund	TSA funds may be required to cover non-budgeted Title III spend throughout 3Q and 4Q (which may approximate -$200M) and to set up The Municipal Recovery Fund (potentially -$100M).

Key Cash Flow Opportunities to Liquidity Plan through June 30, 2018:

Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018	The Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018 (The Act) passed by Congress on 2/9 includes provisions for additional disaster relief funding for Puerto Rico that will translate into positive cash flows against the Liquidity Plan. Additionally, The Act provides for federal funds to support Puerto Rico's public health care costs for the next two years. Total cash flow impact for the remainder of FY2018 will be assessed in subsequent weeks.
Petroleum & Gas Taxes	Strong Petroleum & Gas tax collections could continue throughout Q3 and Q4, providing additional positive variance in collections. YTD collections variance for this revenue stream is +$139M, largely driven by unplanned increases in demand for oil to run power generators. YTD variance has partially offset other revenues that were negatively affected due to the Hurricanes.

Footnotes:

(a) Includes reserve for tax returns ($456 million) and Special Revenue Fund portion of posted collections.

(b) Paygo charges to municipalities and public corporations collected at the TSA.

(c) As of the date of this report, includes $15M in federal funded account balances transferred to the TSA that relate to disaster relief.

(d) Inflows related to the Department of Health, Department of Labor and Human Resources, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and others.

(e) Payroll is paid bi-weekly on the 15th and 30th (or last day of the month, whichever comes sooner).

(f) Related to employee withholdings, social security, insurance, and other deductions.

(g) Police payroll is reflected individually because it is paid through a separate bank account. Also, the police payroll line item shown in the TSA cash flow is gross (i.e. inclusive of Other Payroll Related Items).

(h) Includes payments to third-party vendors as well as intergovernmental payments to agencies with separate Treasuries.

(i) This refers to General Fund appropriations to non-TSA entities such as Legislative Assembly, Correctional Health, Comprehensive Cancer Center, and others.

(j) Excludes Banco Popular of Puerto Rico Account with balance of approximately $146mm; Amounts deposited in GDB subject to GDB restructuring.

(k) Unless otherwise stated, variances are either not material in nature or are expected to reverse in the short term.

Comments (k)
1	Weekly variance mainly due to -$30M lower in Individual Income Tax collections (offsets previous week's +$38M Individual Income Tax variance), -$25M Corporate Income Tax, -$16M in Act 154 collections, -$12M in Petroleum & Gas Tax collections, and others. Weekly unfavorable variance was partially offset by -$17M variance in Nonresident Withholdings. Variances are a mix of timing related variances and permanent variances. Other revenue streams were in line with forecast for the week ended 2/23.
3	Gross SUT collections were higher than projected for the week. The $753M threshold in pledged sales tax base amount for COFINA debt service was reached on 2/16 and pledged sales tax base that was previously flowing to the COFINA BNY Mellon account will flow into the General Fund going forward.
5	YTD favorable variance in rum tax collections will reverse throughout 3Q where forecast rum tax collections in the TSA will continue to be distributed to rum manufacturers, as per the Rum Tax Waterfall. Per the General Fund rum tax waterfall calculation for bulk and cased rum exports, the General Fund receives 100% of bulk and cased rum tax collections until a threshold of $117M in rum export tariff collections relating to total FY18 exports is reached. This threshold was met in December 2017 due to better than expected 1Q and 2Q Rum tax collections (the Liquidity Plan assumes the $117M threshold would be reached in March 2018). Rum manufacturers are now receiving new rum export tariff collections until they receive 46% of the total YTD bulk and cased rum tax. At that point, the TSA will receive 54% of rum export tariff collections, and the rum manufacturers 46%, for the remainder of the year.
6	Variance due to 2Q collections originally forecast for 12/29 that were received on 2/23. The majority of YTD variance is assumed to be permanent, due to lower-than-projected 1Q and 2Q Electronic Lottery collections.
8	$143M was transferred to the TSA from a separate sweep account under the custody of DTPR on 1/26 relating to 1Q and 2Q Paygo charges to municipalities and public corporations. YTD variance remaining is mainly due to payments not yet received from PRASA and various Municipalities.
11	Weekly variance offsets previous YTD timing variance, mainly due to $142M catch up in federal funds received for the Medicaid Program. Remaining weekly and YTD variances in federal fund receipts are partially offset by variances in federally funded vendor disbursements (portion of line 32), federal appropriations to ASES (line 25), and disbursements for Nutritional Assistance (line 35). Additionally remaining YTD variance is due to timing.
19	Variance offsets temporary variance from the previous week, due to the timing of various payments to financial service providers on behalf of public employees and for insurance providers.
20	The PR Police Department disburses its own payroll & related benefits, and outflows for Police Payroll relate to requested payroll advances to the central government (TSA). $18M of YTD variance is due to payroll transfers to the Police Department that were unrelated to FY2018 budgeted payroll. $14M related to prior year payroll expenses and $4M related to ammunition purchases. Remaining YTD variance is being assessed and a forecast for the remainder of FY2018 is under development.
24	YTD Pension Benefits and Pension PayGo outlays variances are temporary and expected to reverse throughout the remainder of the fiscal year.
25	Weekly variance offsets previous YTD variance, mainly due to $137M federally funded appropriation to ASES for the Medicaid Program that was executed on 2/21. YTD variance is timing related and is offset by a temporary reduction in federal fund receipts.
30	YTD variance is timing related and expected to reverse throughout the remainder of the fiscal year.
32	Weekly variance is timing related. Cumulatively, December and January vendor disbursements were within 3% of Liquidity Plan projections, though total February vendor disbursements are projected to end the month below Liquidity Plan by approximately 18%.
34	Weekly variance partially offsets previous week's YTD variance. Of YTD variance, $27M relates to Senior Citizen tax refunds, originally forecast to be refunded in November and December, now projected to be refunded in March 2018. Remaining -$33M variance is also timing related.
35	Weekly variance partially offsets previous YTD temporary variance. YTD variance is timing related and is offset by a temporary reduction in federal fund receipts.
36	YTD variance is offset by GDB Transactions (relates to legacy debt service deposit agreement) variance in Inflows (line 14), with remaining variance due to timing.
37	The Reconciliation Adjustment is budgeted at the agency level, and its use is not expected to be required. However, $300M has been repurposed as a loan to PREPA following a Federal Court Ruling on February 19, 2018 that approved a loan request in the amount of $300M to PREPA from the TSA, and funds were transferred to PREPA on 2/23. The transfer is considered a permanent variance to the FY2018 Liquidity Plan, as the loan is not expected to be repaid prior to the 2018 fiscal year end. Any additional TSA funds required later this fiscal year to continue to support PREPA liquidity needs, or potential PRASA liquidity needs, will flow through this line item of the TSA Cash flow. Corresponding inflows relating to loans that flow through this line item (repayment, interest, other) will be reflected in line 15 above.

Footnotes:

(a) The numbers presented represent a bottom-up build of invoices at the government agency level, which should not be considered to be indicative of total Accounts Payable for the central government. This is due to issues surrounding invoice entry that has hindered the timely cadence of recording invoices, which was made worse by the impact of the Hurricanes.

Due to control processes implemented this fiscal year, it is uncommon for there to be a material checks in vault balance, as now the Department of Treasury has greater control over the approval and authorization of checks before they are issued. Data is sourced from Puerto Rico Department of Treasury.
